H. Ron White

Ron White is a Partner in the Dallas office. Mr. White's primary areas of practice include litigation and business transactions. He has more than 30 years experience as a litigator and is a respected mediator in the Dallas legal community.

He was selected as one of Texas' Super Lawyers as a civil litigator in 2005 and 2010. In October 2004, the Dallas Bar Association selected Mr. White as the Trial Lawyer of the Year. In 2006, he received the Dallas Bar Foundation Fellows Award for Outstanding Service to the Bar and Civic Community.

Though his experience is extensive, his principal area of practice is commercial litigation, including suits that involve business and contract disputes, personal injury, premises liability, employment, and construction matters. Mr. White has served as lead counsel in complex litigation matters on behalf of Fortune 500 corporations as well as governmental and quasi-governmental entities. He has also served as underwriter's counsel on multiple public finance transactions.

Mr. White is a former District Court Judge, a long-standing member of the Texas Bar College, a Life Fellow in the Texas Bar Foundation, Life member of the National Bar Association and founding member of the Texas General Counsel Forum.
